APPLY THE TORCH TO THE CHURCHES

English Suffragists Continue Campaign of Incendiarism Today.

FIND BOMB IN CASTLE.

People of Great Britain Are Inflamed Against the Procedures of Mrs. Pankhurst's Followers.

London, June 6.— A large old country mission near High Wycombe was burned today supposedly by suffragettes. The police found militant literature about the place. The occupants of the house were away, but it was said by neighbors that it contained many valuable antiques which were destroyed.

London, June 6.—Militant suffragettes yesterday continued their campaign of arson and attempts at destruction of property by bombs. Breadsall Church, a historic edifice near Derby, was burned to the ground in the early morning, and during the day a bomb was found in famous Dudhope Castle, near Dundee. The fuse of the bomb had been extinguished by the wind.

While the militant suffragettes are pursuing their destructive campaign, the nonmilitant section is carrying on constitutional political campaigns of great annoyance and embarrassment to the government.

The policy of the national union is to do its utmost to overthrow the Asquith government, and at the same time help the Labor party, which is supporting the women's cause.

The ancient and historic church at Breadsall dating back to Norman times, and containing many priceless relics, was destroyed by fire during the night Suffragettes are suspected, as explosions similar to those caused by the bombs usually employed by the arson squad preceded the fire. A short time ago a suffragette meeting in the village of Breadsall was broken up by boys, and it is generally supposed that the women burned the church in revenge.

In consequence of suffrage attacks, churches in many parts of the country are being closed, except for the usual Sunday services.

Recent discourtesies to the King and the burning down of many churches have informed public opinion to a remarkable degree.

Much lucrative American tourist business is being lost by London hotel and storekeepers, because of the suffragette raids on the public museums and art galleries.

UPHOLDS DEMURRER.

Judge in Atlanta Declines to Order Reversal of Murder Verdict in Frank Case.

Atlanta, Ga., June. 6.—Judge Ben H. Hill of the Fulton county superior court today sustained the state's demurrer to the motion to set aside the verdict by which Leo M. Frank was pronounced guilty of the murder of Mary Phagan, a factory girl.

Ten thousand workmen employed by the Westinghouse interests in the plants of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, the Westinghouse Machine Company, and the Pittsburgh Meter Company, at East Pittsburg, went on strike yesterday. The men are demanding recognition of the union, better working conditions, and the elimination of the bonus, premium, and piece systems

The following dispatch was received in London last night from Durazzo, via. Brindisi. "Civil war is about to begin. The Albanian King, whose reign is not yet three months old, shortly will be involved in a sanguinary struggle against his own subjects who refuse to acknowledge his sway, and who, even if subjugated, will continue to hold that a blood feud exists between him and them. The cabinet counsel sat until 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Two more military men gave up their lives for the advance of army aviation yesterday at Dijon, France, Lieut. Giron and Private Rion were killed when an aeroplane in which they were escouting capsized.

The armory of the Ulster "volunteers" was strenthened yesterday by the addition of 3,000 Mauser rifles, as the result of a daring gun-running feat of an Irish yachtsman. A portion of the consignment was landed to the south of Donaghadee, 16 miles from Belfast, but most of the rifles were delivered straight on the quay at Belfast, and the cases were removed under the eyes of the police by specially selected volunteers.

Two highway robberies, the boldest since the great taxicab hold-up, were committed yesterday, one in New York, the other in Brooklyn, less than two hours apart. In the Manhattan robbery the thieves, three in number, got $2,800, and in the Brooklyn robbery the loot amounted to $3,000—all in small bills. In each case a touring car was used by the thieves in making their escape. It it the police theory that the same gang accomplished both crimes. In each case the thieves robbed messengers carrying payroll money from banks to factories.

Charged with fraudulently obtaining $3,600 from Mrs. Mary T. Ebels, of Long Beach, Cal., Sol Alexander was arrested at a hotel in Westminster, Md., yesterday. Alexander is confined to his room by illness. An attachment has been issued against the bank account here of Alexander and his wife by Robert H. Keyes, who is said to have accompanied Alexander here from Nebraska. Alexander is also said to have obtained a large sum of money from Keyes. Mrs. Eeles says she was induced by Thomas McCullough, an alleged medium, with whom Alexander is said to have been associated, to mortgage her property and turn $27,000 over to him on a message from her dead daughter. After a trip to Chicago with Mrs. Eeles he disappeared. It was then that Alexander, according to Mrs. Eeles, appeared, posing as a government officer. She alleges that she paid him $750 to find McCullough and later turned the $3,000 over to him.

Mrs. L. Carr, 62 years old, was instantly killed, and her husband probably fatally hurt Wednesday, when their carriage, which formed part of a funeral procesion, was struck by a Pennsylvania Railroad train at a crossing in Chaffot, N. Y.

A violent volcanic eruption occurred yesterday on the Dutch Island of Sanguir, 140 miles direct south of Mindanao, in the Phillipines. Several volcanoes were included in the disturbance. Streams of boiling lava poured down the sides of the mountains, overwhelming forests and cocoa plantations. At the same time a heavy rain of stones and ashes from various craters fell over the whole island. Official reports do not mention loss of life, but register the destruction of 100 houses.

Wireless tlephone messages were transmitted 125 miles yesterday by a French army officer, who is making experiments for the government. The tests were carried on between Mattray and Paris. The words were said to be as distinct as those transmitted over wires.

News reached Vera Cruz yesterday evening of the landing of a large shipment of arms and ammunition for the rebels Thursday by the American schooner Sunshine. The landing of the shipment appears to have been carried out without any opposition by the American naval authorities at that port. Huerta apparently is not alarmed. He is not afraid of the Americans, and is withdrawing many of his troops from between here and the capital.

Coursey Hemons, 10 years old, son of Thomas Hemmons, of Crumpton, Md., was instantly killed yesterday morning while on the way to school by an automobile. Hemmons and two other children were playing in the road when the machine came along. Hemmons attempted to run across the road to get out of its way, when a lamp on the automobile struck him on the head, killing him.

PRESIDENT AND ANTILLA'S CARGO

Arms and Ammunition Subject of Order By Wireless Telegraphy.

A DEFINITE POLICY.

Anxiety Among Mediators—Alleged Breach of Faith—No Report of Landing at Tampico.

Washington, June 6.—President Wilson has clearly defined to the State and Navy Departments the action to be taken with respect to the shipment of arms and munitions of war to the constitutionalists at Tampico.

A definite policy is to be applied before the steamer Antilla with her immense cargo of war munitions reaches Tampico.

What this policy is to be has not been made known. It was learned on good authority today, however, that it has been defined by the President. Instructions were sent to the two departments by wireless from the Mayflower, while the President was en route to Washington.

No statement, official or otherwise, is forthcoming from either the State or Navy Department, respecting the sailings of vessels bearing war munitions, or the reported landing of a cargo of such munitions by the American schooner Sunshine in Tampico yesterday.

In the meantime mediation proceedings are trembling in the balance. Because of the delicacy of the situation, officials of all the departments refuse to discuss it. It was officially denied, however, that any orders have been sent out regarding the steamer Antilla, which cleared New York a few days ago, and is due in Tampico next week.

Secretary of State Bryan denied today that he has received any official protest from the mediators regarding shipment of arms or other war mupitions to the constitutionaliss. He declined to say whether the matter had been "officially called to his attention."

Th rumor among diplomats that the Chilean minister, one of the mediators, is not in accord with his two conferres, an dthat he favors abandonment of the mediation plan because of lack of supoprt by the United States Government, is persistently repeated, but has not been confirmed.

It is also rumored that the Spanish Ambassador, acting for the Huerta government here, has supplied Huerta with data tending to show "breach of faith by the United States."

NATIONAL A. C. VS. CARDINALS.

The Cardinals will have Vic Gauzza's National A. C. for their opponents Sunday afternoon at the ball park in Alexandria, and as both teams have always been friendly rivals for the last three years, a good game is promised those who attend.

The Nationals will have "Chief" Meyers and L. Rector as catchers, L. Rector and Rabbitt as pitchers, Shalin, L. Russo, J. Shaffer, Peed and Gauzza, infielders, T. Russo, Marine, Zerega and Vernstien as outfielders, while the Cardinals line up will be their usual outfit with Thompson and McBride as battery, and Allensworth and Trenary in reserve.

The Nationals are well known in Alexandria, and will bring along a large delegation of rooters as they realize that the Cardinals will be out with their strongest outfit to cop the first game of the series of three.

T. F. BURROUGHS SONS.

DONATIONS WILL REACH $41,000

All Are Urged to Send Contributions Before End of Campaign.

GIFTS FROM ABROAD.

Wage-earners Asked to Give Toward New Hospital—The Western Drama, "Tattlers," Friday.

With contributions well on the way to secure $41,000, it is sincerely hoped that all who can will send in their subscriptions before the end of the campaign and in time to give the Executive Committee ample opportunity to make their report on the 15th.

Every wage earner in Alexandria and the adjoining counties should remember that no class of people need a hospital more than they and they should also show their appreciation of the benefits of a hospital by adding something to the hospital fund. A contribution of 10c a week means $5.20 a year, so by a slight sacrifice everybody could make a contribution of from $1.00 to $5.00.

A factory with fifty hands giving 10c a week, would mean $5.00 per week, $20.00 per month, and $200.00 for ten months, 1-2 of this sum, or 5c a week would mean a hundred dollar contribution. There are a large number of factories in Alexandria which ought to take enough interest in the hospital to unite their employees in making a factory contribution.

Under the provision of the resolution of Council making the appropriation for the City, a free ward is provided for; but everyone should desire to see every ward and room in the building in the most modern up-to-date character for none of us know how soon we may be calling for the assistance of the hospital and therefore it is hoped that every citizen will make an effort to contribute something, no matter how small toward the fund before the close of the campaign.

The Western Drama "Tatters" will be given at the Opera House Friday evening by the Washington Dramatic Club for the benefit of the hospital fund and it promises to be a most entertaining and interesting affair. All who desire to spend a pleasant evening and at the same time assist the hospital, should secure tickets from the Lady Managers, the Trustees, or the Executive Committee. Reserved seats will be on sale at Warfield's Drugstore and tickets purchased from the various committeemen be exchanged for reserved seats on the payment of 15c. In this connection it may be stated that the Dramatic Club have tendered their services absolutely without costs, except for a few costumes and the printing has been donated by Messrs. Rose of the Hill Printing Co., and George E. Markell & Co. The material used in the printing by The E. Morrison Printing Co., of Washington and the Opera House through the courtesy of Mr. Braxton Smith Manager.

Special attention is directed to the rather curious fact that every contribution received this morning was from friends of the Hospital, living away from Alexandria. One from Lewis Smoot of Washington, D. C. was received, another from a friend in Massachusetts who does not wish her name published and one from Rev. John G. Scott, of Richmond. It surely seems that when our outside friends are so liberal that those who have not yet contributed who make a contribution at once.

SNOWSTORMS IN JUNE.

Tempests and Flood Cause Havoc in Different Places.

Reno, Nev., June 6.—Snowstorms, accompanied by sudden drops in temperature, are reported from several points in Nevada. In Reno and vicinity slight snow flurries continued until noon and temperature as low as 27 degrees prevailed.

Heavier snowfalls were reported in the mountain districts and at Winnemuca and Carlin. Reports from along the line of the Nevada, California and Oregon Railroad said that the storm extended as far north as Lake View, Ore., three inches covering the grounds at that place. Practically no damage has been done to crops in this section.

San Francisco, June 6.—No abatement had been reported of the storm which has swept the entire coast for the last 48 hours. More than 25 northbound vessels from this port were having difficulty in making headway against the northwest gale, which at times reached a velocity of more than 80 miles an hour. Radio messages from several vessels said their passengers were suffering all the discomforts of a winter hurricane.

La Plata, Md., June 6.—The drought which has prevailed over southern Maryland for several weeks was broken Thursday by an electric storm which did some damage.

Occupant of Burning Building About to Jump Two Stories.

Flames Spread to Three Structures on Eleventh Street—Blaze at Boat House on O Street.

Washington, June 6.—Trapped on the second floor of the building at 506 Eleventh street northwest by fire which made escape by the stairway impossible, Samuel Friend was rescued about 4:30 o'clock this morning by Captain Virnstein, of No. 16 engine company, and Sergeant Lohman and Policeman B. H. Johnson of the First precinct, just as he was about to jump to the street.

Friend conducts a bookstore on the first floor of the building and had his living apartments on the second floor. Members of his family are at Colonial Beach for the summer, and he was the only person sleeping in the building.

The fire started in a small frame building in the rear of 506 Eleventh street. Policeman Johnson discovered the fire and sounded an alarm, but, by the time the firemen arrived, the flames had spread to the building in the front and to the rear of 508 Eleventh street.

The damages will reach $3,500.

Fire shortly before 7 o'clock this morning did $500 damage to White's boathouse at the foot of O street southwest. The fireboat Firefighter, which has its headquarters nearby, prevented the flames from spreading to other buildings along the river front. Cause of the fire was not dtermined.

LABOR FEDERATION.

NORFOLK, VA., June 6.—Officers were elected and Fredericksburg was chosen as the next place of meeting of the Virginia Federation of Labor at the concluding session of its annual convention here Thursday. A number of important resolutions were adopted by the federation, among them one amending the constitution so as to prohibit any member from being eligible to office in the convention as a delegate unless he is a qualified voter of the city or community he represents.

While factional politics played a strong part in the contest for offices, the "ins" won out by the election of the following ticket: President, E. C. Davison, of Richmond; Secretary-Editor, H. T. Colvin, of Alexandria; Financial Secretary-Treasurer, R. E. L. Heckman, of Roanoke; executive Board, the above officers and First Vice President W. E. Doherty, of Norfolk; J. B. ESCAPED A COLLISION.

Youth Avoids Automobile by Dropping From his Bicycle.

With the rapid increase in the number of automobiles and motor trucks in the city, too much care cannot be exercised by boys and others who use wheels. Young people are naturally careless, as they seem to suppose that everybody will make way for them. Hence they take risks which their elders avoid.

About seven o'clock yesterday evening a youth on a wheel was rushing north on Fairfax street. Upon nearing King street he saw to his alarm that an automobile coming up that thoroughfare was directly in front of him. The boy had enough presence of mind to drop from his wheel into the street and escaped injury. The driver of the automobile was on the alert, and brought his machine to an immediate standstill, and waited for the rider of the bicycle to remount and ride off before he continued on his way.

The above incident is described for the purpose of warning many youngsters who mount bicycles and ride at rapid gaits. If they fail to slow down at cross streets or to be on the alert they tempt providence.

The affair took place yesterday afternoon at six o'clock and the three men entered a house at 1413 Duke street, where a general mlee occurred in which razors, knives, and brick-bats were used. Anderson was badly cut about the head.

[illegible] MONUMENT.

[illegible] Shepherd, of Baltimore, has written to the Baltimore Sun [illegible] comments upon the [illegible] upon the Confederate [illegible] which [illegible] Thursday. He says: "Upon the Confederate [illegible] has relation only to the [illegible] the words which [illegible] for the inscription [illegible] turn their swords [illegible] their spears into [illegible] pruning-hooks [illegible] conceive of language more [illegible] cal in character to all the memories, aspirations and ideals which a monument to our dead is designed to reveal, as well as to perpetuate. Over the very ashes of our heroes we embody in stone before the universe our determination to abandon the lofty visions and exalted aims to which their lives were both a consecration and a sacrifice. Henceforth our wordly quest is the mammon of unrighteousness, the vision and the ideal have faded into eclipse. If the artist whose fame has circled the globe will be gracious enough to pardon by presumption I shall venture to suggest as eminently relevant to the purposes of a monumental inscription a passage from another prophet, bearing his own name, and in the sphere of language endowed with the instinct of the sovereign artist.

"Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army."

Mr. Shepherd's criticism is based on sound grounds.

ADAMS EXPRESS CO'S NEW BUREAU.

The Adams Express Co. has adopted a new plan which will tend to reduce the cost of living by cutting out the commission man and bring the producer and the consumer more closely together. They have established an order and food products bureau which publishes daily a list of products which are sold by farmers on their lines and this list is posted in their offices nad submitted to hotels, restaurants, and housekeepers daily. The procedure is simple. All that you have to do is to buy an express order for the amount of your purchase turn it over to the agent of the express company and he will buy the goods and have same delivered to your home.

In looking over the list at the local office today we find a number of items are included from near-by Virginia points, with prices are much lower than those quoted in this city. Eggs, butter, fish, crabs, cheese, chickens and country produce, are among the articles listed. A little co-operation betwen families buying at wholesale would result in a saving of at least twenty-five per cent.

Farmers and dealers desiring to dispose of their products should communicate with the Order and Food Products Bureau, Adams Express Company, Philadelphia.

NO APPROPRIATION, FOR BRIDGE.

The sundry civil bill which was reported out of the committee to the House Friday carries an appropriation for the memorial bridge across the Potomac which will mean so much to this community. The project is so meritorious and will add so greatly to the beautifying that the delay in providing for its construction seems difficult to understand. Two years ago the prospects for the building of the bridge looked even more promising than it does at present. The bill, however, carries two items of interest to Alexandria. One is an appropriation of $400,000 for work on the Lincoln Memorial to be erected on the Potomac and the other is for $250,000 for the Arlington memorial amphitheater.

500,000 OUT OF WORK.

Railroad Men in the West Losing $30,000,000 a Month.

Washington, June 6.—That 500,000 railroad men in the West are out of work, and these men and their families are losing $30,000,000 a month because of the retrenchments by the roads, was the statement made here yesterday by Fred Feick, representative of 1,000,000 Western railway employes.

Feick came to the capital to urge the Interstate Commerce Commission to grant an increase in rates to the railroads. The roads, he added, have been forced to retrench because the rates are too low to return a profit and permit of the development of the lines.

"Put these idle men back to work and let them earn this $360,000,000 a year they are now losing," Feick asserted, "and they will put it in circulation and improve business."

President Wilson's entire program of legislation, embodied in [illegible] three bills was passed yesterday by the House. The anti-trust bills will be transmitted to the Senate today. The following are the features of the bills: Price discrimination prohibited. Railroad pooling barred. "Discounts" or "rebates" prohibited. Interlocking directorates illegal. Guilt made personal in all cases. Labor [illegible] declared legal. [illegible] C. to [illegible] bond issues. Commission to regulate [illegible] corporations [illegible]

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

COLORED WOMAN LOSES $600.

Secress Who Obtained Money Cannot be Found.

Staunton, Va., June 6.—Ruth Gray, mistress of the occult and all of that sort of thing, has left Staunton. And with Ruth, so it is alleged, went with $600 belonging to an old colored woman who could ill afford the loss. If circumstances are what they seem, it is only another story of human gullibility, of human meanness, of the old, old human desire for "easy money."

Among those who went to Ruth for advice not obtainable from ordinary sources, was Mary Brown, who had some money in the bank and some property left to her by her husband, Mary believed that when her husband died he left in hiding more money which the wife thought she ought to have.

So she went to the wonder worker it is alleged, and to the mysterious person confided the belief that somewhere about her property a good sum was concealed. Thereupon Ruth told Mary that she had the only system for recovering hidden treasures, and she told Mary, too, it is alleged, that $600 must be put up to secure results.

The $600 was not a fee, however, The money was to be used simply to attract the other money that was supposed to be hidden away somewhere around Mary's house. Mary got the $600 from the bank, and turned it over to Ruth, it is said. In plain view the seeress wrapped the money up in paper and hid it away, telling Mary not to touch it until after three dayse, when she was to unwrap the package and find all of the cash intact and with it written instructions as to the whereabouts of the treasure.

On Sunday, the three days having expired, Mary unwrapped the paper. Within she found a one dollar bill, covering a roll of plain paper cut to bank note size.

WINDSTORM AT ROANOKE.

Considerable Minor Damage—Entire Section Covered by Disturbance.

Roanoke, Va., June 6.—A terrific windstorm, accompanied by a light downpour of rain, unroofed houses and prostrated shade trees and did considerable property damage in this city late Thursday afternoon. A six weeks' drought was broken in this and other parts of Southwest Virginia, but an insufficient rainfall came to do the crops and fruit a great deal of good.

Telegraphic advices from Abingdon, Christiansburg, Martinsville, Big Stone Gap, Bedford City, Pulaski, Wytheville and other places shows that the storm covered a wide area in this part of the State. Tobacco, grain, grass and fruits as well as gardens and shrubbery have been damaged by the drought in this section, but with plenty of rain from now on farmers say they will raise fair crops.

I had not suffered very long before I took Doan's Kidney Pills and didn't really know what was the matter, but I got real bad with weakness and lameness through my back. For a few days I couldn't do my housework. I had to lie down most of the time and it was the same when I went to bed at night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leadbeater & Son's Drug Store and they cured me."

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION OF THE MOST SUCCESFSUL EVER HELD IN OLD DOMINION.

"Camp Marye," Near Fredericksburg, Va., June 6.—The school of instruction for officers came to an end last night when General J. Thompson Brown, of RICHMOND, late captain of artillery in the Confederate service, lectured on the second battle of Fredericksburg, in which he took part. After the lecture the officers attended a dance given by the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities of Fredericksburg.

The excellent location and condition o fthe camp is indicated by the fact that no illness of any kind has occurred. Not even a single accident has claimed the attention of the surgeon on duty.

Cold weather has caused many officers to regret that winter clothes and uniforms were not brought to camp.

Army officers on duty unite in saying that the school is most successful and that the Virginia officers are both intelligent and efficient.

An incident which indicates that the war department is earnestly preparing for hostilities took place when Captain Shipp, the senior instructor, assembled all the student officers together with General Sale and Major Vaughan and explained to the m the orders prepared by the war department to be sent out as soon as th president issues a proclamation of war. This order urges all officers and enlisted men to prepare for a long foreign service and to arrange business affairs for an indefinite absence from home. It also points out that all who fail to respond to the call will be tried by court-martial.

Official notice has been received that the maneuver near Washington, scheduled for August, has been called off. The war department has, however, notified the adjutant-general of Virginia that a maneuver camp wil be held in Virginia and that the troops of Maryland and West Virginia will encamp with the Virginia troops. The camp site has not yet been selected but it is probable that it will be near either Charlottesville, Manassas or Winchester. About 8,000 men will be in the maneuver camp.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Tribune says: "Within the next nine months the adminstration may be forced to issue bonds to obtain money to keep the wheels of government in motion. The Treasury receipts, particularly those that are derived from customs are falling off at an alarming rate. On the other hand, expenses are increasing by leaps and bounds. Further, the surplus that the Democrats found in the Treasury when they came into control on March 4, 1913, has been cut by more than $40,000,000. Administration leaders are hopeful that the returns from the income tax law will help them out.

Of Mrs. Chappell of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
